

Encouragement

"Kind words do not cost much. Yet they accomplish much."

Blaise Pascal

I once heard someone say that when we encourage someone, we are imparting courage into them. That's a powerful statement, but so true. Encouragement gives hope. It can often be what a person needs to keep going in a situation. Encouraging words can build others up and release life.

We can all encourage people.

Discover creative ways to encourage others and to motivate them toward acts of compassion, doing beautiful works as expressions of love.

Hebrews 10:24 (Passion Translation)

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Challenge:

Is there someone you know that could do with a little encouragement at the moment?

Pray for them, listen to what God may have to say and share that with them.
